

Executive Director of Corporate Services & Monitoring Officer and functions delegated by Head of Paid Service and previously exercised by Executive Director of Community

Local Scheme of Delegations

The Officer Scheme of Delegation is contained within Part 2 – Section G of the Constitution. It sets out the extent of the powers delegated to the Designated Officers and the General Principles which apply to the exercise of all delegated powers relating to officer delegation.

The Officer Scheme operates the cascade principle under which any officer given powers thereunder can further delegate those powers to other officers through a Local Scheme of Delegation.

The Executive Director of Corporate Services & Monitoring Officer delegates those powers vested in them in paragraph 11 Part 2 – Section G of the Constitution to the officers of the services shown below.
